

Ancient History: The Roman Conquest (EXERCISES)

1. Name two important civilisations. Place them in this map.

2. What sea did Romans and Carthaginians want to control?
3. Where were the Carthaginians colonies?
4. True or False.
- a. Saguntum was friendly with Romans.
 - b. Hannibal attacked the Mediterranean Sea.
 - c. Viriato attacked Saguntum in 219BC
5. What mountains did Hannibal cross to attack the Romans?
6. Place two important peninsulas in this map.

7. Why did the Romans decide to attack the Carthaginians on the Iberian Peninsula?
8. Fill the gaps:
In 218BC the _____ invaded the _____ Peninsula.
After many battles they _____ the Carthaginians.
Now the Romans controlled the _____ and _____ of the Iberian Peninsula.
9. Finish the sentences:
Viriato was the leader of the ...
The Romans fought against the Celtiberians for almost ...
The name of the Roman general that attacked Numantia is ...
The Roman conquest ended in ...
10. Choose the correct option:
The Romans invaded the Iberian Peninsula in 19BC / 218BC.
In 134BC Scipio Aemilianus / Hannibal attacked Numantia.
The siege of Saguntum / Numantia was at the start of the Roman conquest.
The Celtiberians fought /didn't fight against the Romans.
The Lusitanians / Romans were a Celtiberian tribe.
Scipio Aemilianus / Viriato was a Roman general